

Lancaster Motor Speedway Caskey/Munn / BLUE RIDGE Outlaw Late Models June 6th 2026 Race Recap

Picking up his 2nd consecutive series victory and thrusting himself into the 2026 BROLM championship conversation, Layton Sullivan bested the field Saturday night at Lancaster Motor Speedway earning $3000 for his efforts.

Fast Qualifiers Anthony Sanders (Group 1) and Sullivan (Group 2) ,Sullivan also picked up the $100 Race City Performance fast qualifier award, Also led the field in the ProFabrication, Inc Quick 8 Dash. Sullivan would prevail in the 8-lap affair over Sanders with Braden Jones, Dalton Hodge, and Brandon Dockery completing the Top 5.

Picking up where he left off last week at Wythe Raceway, Sullivan stormed to the lead to take command in the opening laps. Sanders remained persistent in his pursuit of Sullivan but the Gaffney, SC racer was up for the task at hand as he fended off the veteran on multiple restarts. While the lead duo set the pace, the racing action intensified just behind them as Jones, Bryan Mullis (the winner of the previous series event at Lancaster), Dale Timms and Adam Yarbrough jockeyed for position. Contact with the wall would send Jones to the attention of his team on pit road. Though his hopes for a Top 3 evaporated, the point leader returned to the track to salvage as many championship points as possible. Side by side racing was on display behind the lead duo but Sullivan flexed his power at the head of the pack all the way through the event and was welcomed by an enthusiastic crew of family and friends in Victory Lane. Sanders and Mullis joined Sullivan on the podium as Timms and Caples Jr completed the Top 5 finishers.

Despite a disappointing outing at Lancaster, Braden Jones remains atop the championship standings as the BROLM teams eye a visit to Harris Speedway on Saturday June 13th. Terry Caples Jr, via his Top 5 at Lancaster, now resides only 14 points behind Jones as the battle for the title begins to intensify. Sanders (-27 points), Sullivan (-43 points), and Mullis (-48 points) round out the Top 5.
